

ESSENTIAL VOCABULARY
Blurb	A short description of the story.
Caption	A brief explanation for a picture.
Letter	A message from one person to another often over distance.
Diary	A personal reflection written in first person in an informal style.
Coordinating conjunctions	Words used to join two main clauses together. FANBOYS help us remember our conjunctions. Look at the diagram below.
Pest	An unwanted creature
Detective	Someone who solves mysteries.
Typewriter	An old-fashioned device that allows text to be printed.
Encyclopaedia	a book or set of books giving information on many subjects or on many aspects of one subject and typically arranged alphabetically.

Final Written Outcome

To write a diary entry in character, as Hermelin.

Non-Negotiables for this piece of work

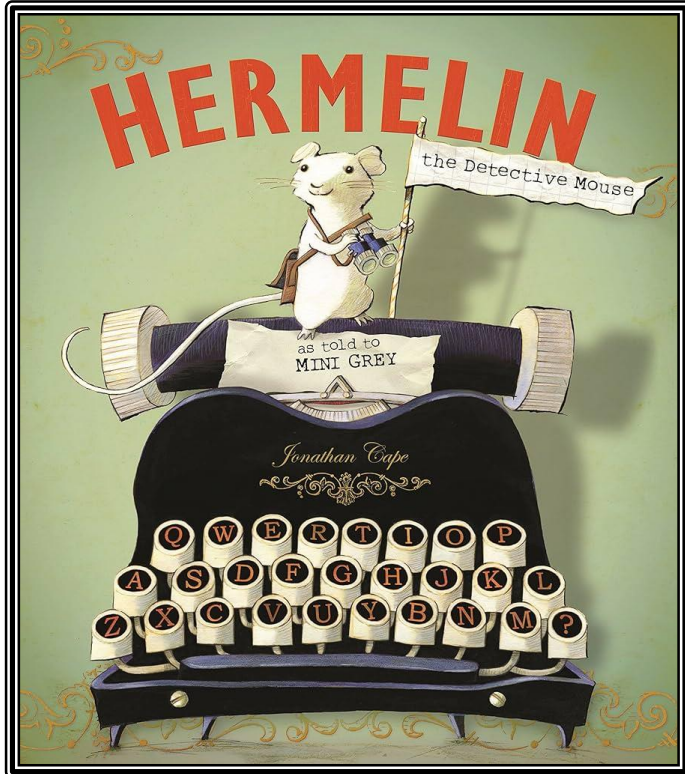

- Empathetic language
- Writing in role
- Correctly formed sentences.
- Correctly laid out diaries
- Conjunctions
- First person

Example of a diary entry

Dear Diary,
 Today started wonderfully. I received an exciting invitation to a party from the residents of Offley street! They wanted to meet the person behind the expert solving of the missing items! Yes, expert! If I do say so myself. Anyway, I turned up at the address on the invitation. I felt very nervous at first, I hid behind a can of food in Boshers shop just watching the party team set up. There was all sorts of yummy looking food such as cream cakes and cheese! I love cheese! But then all of a sudden...

A typewriter

An Encyclopaedia

