

How have holidays changed over time?

Year 2

History KNOWLEDGE ORGANISER

ESSENTIAL VOCABULARY
Different	Not the same.
Holidays	Time away from home.
Resort	A place you might go to on holiday,
Same	Alike.
Souvenir	Something you buy from a holiday to take home.
Promenade	A walkway near the sea.

Important things to know

1. People began to go on seaside holidays when they started to get paid more money at work.
2. In the 1950s, people also began to get more holiday time from work.
3. People travelled to the seaside by train or coach. A few people used a car.
4. Most people went on holiday in the United Kingdom. Some went to holiday resorts such as Butlins or Pontins.
5. Some things about holidays are the same and some are different from the past.
6. Not everyone went to the seaside. Some people went camping in the countryside and some people stayed at home.
7. We can find out about the past by looking at postcards sent to friends and family.
8. We can also ask people about their holidays.
9. And we can look at objects people have brought back from their holiday, called 'souvenirs'.
10. We can look at the photographs that people took on holiday too.

By the end of this topic I will be able to

- Learn about changes within living memory
- Understand historical concepts such as continuity and change, similarity and difference.
- Ask historically valid questions.
- Identify similarities and differences between ways of life in different periods.
- Ask and answer questions.
- Understand some of the ways in which we find out about the past.
- Identify different ways in which the past is represented.
- Use a wide range of everyday historical terms.
- Use parts of stories and other sources to show they know and understand key features of events.
- Use sources to show they know and understand the past.
- Suggest reasons why changes took place

The most important change in seaside holidays is...

On their seaside holidays, children today still like to...

Children liked to watch Punch and Judy shows at the seaside.

Children liked to ride on the carousel at the fairground.

Children liked to ride on the donkeys at the seaside.